The director of schools is responsible for implementing board policies and for interpreting them to staff, students and the public.¹

The director of schools, in consultation with principals, staff members, and other persons and groups as appropriate to the topic, will develop administrative procedures as necessary to implement board policies or for the items deemed necessary for the efficient operation of the schools.²

Within the policies and regulations of the Board and the director of schools, the principals are authorized to establish rules and procedures for the staff and students of their schools.

DISSEMINATION

The director of schools is directed to establish and maintain an orderly plan for preserving and making accessible to all employees the administrative procedures.
